B) LESSON PLAN Description:

This course continues to build on the sequential development and integration of communication skills in four major areas—reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Benchmarks for the Florida Sunshine State Standards are repeated as needed in course sequences. It most specifically focuses on deepening and furthering students' understanding in the following ways:

- Reading—reinforces reading comprehension skills by teaching students comprehension techniques for literary fiction, nonfiction, poetry, and drama; discusses common literary devices; shows students how to analyze, evaluate, and interpret a text; reinforces awareness of the elements and structure of narrative and expository prose; guides students through readings of Thornton Wilder's Our Town (play) and Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird as well as selections of and excerpts from well-known poetry and nonfiction pieces.
- Writing—develops students' writing skills by teaching about clauses and phrases in sentence structures; reviews common sentence construction errors and methods for avoiding them; provides practice in standard and nonstandard English, as well as specialized language use; teaches Greek and Latin roots and prefixes to enhance vocabulary and spelling skills; expands students' abilities to write cohesive and coherent expository prose; gives students the opportunity to develop their abilities in writing literary critiques, personal essays, poetry, and research papers.
- Special Topics—incorporates research skills, including internet, library, and reference material use, throughout the curriculum.

C) LESSON PLAN Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Master the fundamentals of sentence structure, correct usage, punctuation and grammar with an emphasis on verbs
2. Write a unified coherent essay with substantial introductory, body and concluding paragraphs, with emphasis placed on the Narrative and Process rhetorical modes.
3. Enrich their vocabulary knowing, understanding and using words more effectively.
4. Students will write introductory essay paragraphs including a carefully constructed thesis statement.
