

U. S. INTERNATIONAL CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

Students

E-NEWSLETTER No 6

USICA PHILATELIC CLUB

e-NEWS

USICA School Activities

U.S. Presidents on U.S. postage stamps

For more than 160 years the one subject that has appeared most frequently on the face of U.S. Postage stamps is that of American Presidents. When the U.S. Post Office released its first two postage stamps in 1847, George Washington, along with Benjamin Franklin, were the two subjects depicted on these premier issues.