

Proclamation

Miami-Dade County Office of the Mayor and Board of County Commissioners

Whereas: Miami-Dade County takes great pride in honoring individuals, organizations, corporations and initiatives whose contributions elevate the quality of life for the people who reside here; and

Whereas: The U.S. International Christian Academy, a non-public independent alternative school registered with the Florida Department of Education, is committed to providing students with the skills and knowledge needed for career opportunities in the future; and

Whereas: Accredited in all 50 states by the University Accrediting Association, the U.S. International Christian Academy's affiliations worldwide include the National Coalition of Alternative Community Schools and National Bilingual, in addition to the Association of Christian School International, which is the largest evangelical Christian school organization in the world; and

Whereas: Creating a positive learning environment, the teachers are individual members of the Christian Teachers International Association, Florida Distance Learning Association and the America Association for Collegiate Independent Study and are certified by the Private School Accrediting Alliance; and

Whereas: The U.S. International Christian Academy offers morning, evening and weekend classes, as well as independent study, correspondences and online programs, and is registered with the College Board (SAT/Achievements), America College Program, and Educational Testing Service;

Now Therefore: BE IT RESOLVED, THAT I, ALEX PENELAS, MAYOR OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS AND THIS COMMUNITY, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, April 30, 2002, as

U.S. International Christian Academy Day

In Observance Thereof: I call upon the good people of Miami-Dade County to join me in recognizing all the staff at this higher learning facility for their commitment and dedication towards preparing our youth for a brighter tomorrow.

Alex Penelas
Mayor

April 30, 2002

Proclamation

By the Mayor of the City of Sweetwater

Whereas, Schools provide greater earning power for our young people and increase our quality of life and standard of living, and,

Whereas, Schools promote equal opportunity and understanding, help students compete in a global economy, encourage students to strive for excellence and empower students to become active concerned citizens; and,

Whereas, U.S. International Christian Academy is a private independent, international Christian school with morning, evening, and weekend classes, independent study, correspondence and online programs.

Whereas, U.S. International Christian Academy is accredited in all 50 states by the University International Accrediting Association, and we are affiliated worldwide with the Association of Christian School International, the largest evangelical Christian school organization in the world, and member of the National Coalition of Alternative Community Schools and National Bilingual

Whereas, The teachers are individual members of the Christian Teachers International Association and the American Association for Collegiate Independent Study; and are certified by the Private School Accrediting Alliance.

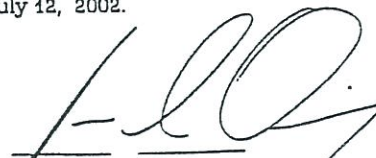

Whereas, U.S. International Christian Academy is registered member of the College Board (SAT/Achievements), America College Testing Program, and Educational Testing Service.

Now Therefore: BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Jose L. Diaz, Mayor of the City of Sweetwater, Florida, on behalf of the City Commission and this community, do hereby proclaim, Tuesday July 29, 2002 as

U.S. International Christian Academy Day

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Official Seal of the City to be affixed on this date of July 12, 2002.

Jose L. Diaz
Mayor